the extent applicable to the country or end user); or (2) export, re-export or transfer the products to any person, entity, and/or country, in each case without first obtaining written authorization from the applicable government agency (if required).

An end-user/end-use statement may be required prior to placement of a purchase order, unless such statement has already been provided by Purchaser. Seller may also require reasonable cooperation from the Purchaser in order to determine any license requirements and/or process applications for export licenses. Any requirement to obtain a license may result in a delay in shipment and/or additional costs. In addition, if the relevant government agency denies a required export license, Seller will be prevented from the sale and delivery of the products. The quoted lead time for the shipment of products may be impacted by the length of time required to obtain an export license. Seller will not have any liability to the Purchaser for any failure or delay in shipment resulting from any license requirement.
